

OUR music FACULTY

AUDRAJEAN HEYDENBURG

education

Central Michigan University | Master of Music Education

Central Michigan University | Bachelor of Music Education - Concentration in Piano

bio

Audrajean Heydenburg received her Bachelor and Master Degrees in Music Education (with a concentration in piano) from Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan. She currently teaches private piano and organ, piano pedagogy, keyboard literature, and music perspectives at Spring Arbor University, where she has been teaching since 1968. Previous classroom teaching included music theory and music history.

She is active as an adjudicator for various auditions and festivals and continues to perform regularly in the Jackson community. Included in her teaching experiences are two summers at Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp and two years as choral director at Laker High School in Pigeon, Michigan. She has been active in the Michigan Music Teachers Association as an adjudicator and has served on and chaired its board of certification. Mrs. Heydenburg is an honorary member of the Michigan Band and Orchestra Association for her contributions to its solo and ensemble festivals.

Mrs. Heydenburg's performances include most recently a performance of "Carnival of the Animals" by Camille Saint-Saens with the Jackson Symphony Orchestra. She has also performed with the Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp Faculty Orchestra, the Grand Rapids Community Wind Ensemble, the Albion College Orchestra, the Jackson Community College Wind Ensemble and the Spring Arbor University Wind Ensemble. Her solo performances include programs for the Divine Artist Series, Tuesday Musicale and numerous community functions.

Mrs. Heydenburg is a member of the chancel choir at First United Methodist Church in Jackson and is also the church pianist. She is married and has three grown children and eight grand children. The Heydenburgs reside in Jerome, Michigan.

Spring Arbor
UNIVERSITY

